

İlker Fatih Özorhon

Dr. İlker Fatih Özorhon graduated from Yıldız Technical University, Faculty of Architecture in 2000. He got the master degree from Istanbul Technical University by his thesis on “Natural Light with Its Aspect Determining the Architectural Space” at Architectural Design Program in 2002. He completed his Ph.D. studies at İstanbul Technical University, Architectural Design Program by his thesis named “The Issue of Originality in Architecture: Turkish Modernity in the period of 1950-60” in 2008. He started working as a teaching assistant at Maltepe University in 2001 and he worked as an Assistant Professor between 2009-2012. He served as Head of the Department of Architecture (English) between 2011-2012. He has studies published in several journals, presented in symposiums and congress and has awards in architectural design competitions. He won many prizes including first prize in many national and international architectural design competitions. He is currently working as an associate professor in the Department of Architecture at Özyeğin University.